

NRHS MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

TUESDAY - FEBRUARY 13, 2018

Today is the second day of Granite State Respect Week. The theme today is talk it out. Make sure your friends know you are there to listen; not to judge, and that you're happy to talk through their options if they'd like to, while reassuring them that they are making the decisions and you're there to support them. Around the school, you will see posters with key phrases that you can use when supporting a friend. Also, the girls' basketball teams play tonight in support of teen dating violence. There will be a 50-50 raffle. Come show support for the girls' basketball team and teen dating voices.

Attention juniors: Please see Mrs. DeVost in Room 218 to get your Winter Carnival event assignment cards this week.

All freshmen interested in helping with Winter Carnival bulletin board decorating, hallway decorating, or giant poster decorating, please come to room 113 during 4C on Wednesday for a planning meeting. If you would like to help but can't make it, please see Mrs. Peterson.

The unified basketball team lost to Berlin, 52-28.

The girls' basketball teams will host Franklin tonight with JV game at 5, and their Senior Game to follow.
