

NRHS MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

FRIDAY - MARCH 9, 2018

ATTENTION SENIORS:

Not sure yet what you wish to do after graduation? Think you may want to go to a local college and begin a program, but not sure what? Are you worried about the cost? If so, please come to Guidance on Monday from 11:00-12:30 to meet with Joyce Larson, Director of Enrollment at Lakes Region Community College and discuss your options. YOU CAN EVEN APPLY ON THE SPOT AND GET ACCEPTANCE THAT DAY! All you have to do is pick up a College Application to LRCC in Guidance today, see Mrs. Philbrick and put your name on the list to order a transcript from her. Next, bring your completed application and transcript with you to guidance on Monday to meet with Ms. Larson! It doesn't get any easier! See Mrs. Philbrick with any questions.

Do you have an interest in marketing? Art? Web Design? Is there a career you just want to learn more about? See Ms. Yeakel in room 106 for extended learning opportunities in many areas - especially hospitality, manufacturing, and healthcare!

The spirit team will be competing in the State Finals on Sunday, at Pinkerton Academy, in Derry at 1pm.

Our SALT group and others will be "plunging" into Lake Winnepesaukee at noon on Sunday, at the Margate Resort, supporting our unified basketball and soccer teams, and New Hampshire Special Olympics. There is still time to donate to this worthy cause. See any SALT member or Mr. Cofran.

The Winter Sports Awards program is Tuesday night at 6:30. Please dress appropriately.

There will be a short meeting for SALT members in Mr. Merrifield's room at the start of 4B today, at 11:10.

Optional spring team practices start today. Please check the information on Mr. Cofran's bulletin board. Any questions, please see him.
